

Five Eagles

Five members of Boy Scout Troop 174 Simsbury were presented the Eagles Scout badge by Scoutmaster John Woloszynski. The award is the highest in scouting. Recipients, from left, are Thomas Lewandowski, Steve Hollm, Brian Buzard, Wayne Strong and Martin Cogen. The troop meets in Boy Scout Hall on Hopmeadow Street (Kirk Hatsian Photo).

Scouts Honored At Ceremonies

SIMSBURY — Eagle Scouts Martin Cogen, Tom Lewandowski and Wayne Strong were recognized at a Troop 174 Court of Honor on Oct. 24 at Central School. The Eagle Awards were presented to Martin and Wayne by Russell Shaw, Simsbury's First Selectman. Tom is serving as Senator Weicker's Senate Page and will be presented his award on completion of six month tour of duty in Washington, D.C.

Star Rank was awarded to Stephen Bonnar and Bill Woloszynski; First Class to Gregory Gordon and Brian Roth by Scout Master John Woloszynski. 25 Scouts received 87 merit badges, 19 bronze, 9 gold and 5 silver cedars earned at scout camp for camp service and balanced progress. Led by Senior Patrol Leader, Sam Taylor, the scouts entertained their parents with skits